

Brake and Transmission Components

The Open Parts brand was designed and created by EXO Automotive. Within this collection is a series of brand products for the Automotive, which have in common the quality has always been imperative for our company. All products and packaging are color-coordinated, reflecting the attention devoted to the project. A feature that is reflected inside the box, where the product is proposed together with any additional accessory. Particular attention is paid to monitoring prices OES. Given that car manufacturers are increasingly price-sensitive, and provide spare parts at very aggressive prices, OPEN PARTS wants to become the real alternative to original spare.
