

Philips Lighting

Philips Automotive Lighting, a business unit of Royal Philips Electronics is a major supplier of lamps for industry and the automotive aftermarket. Our products improve safety and comfort of the world they illuminate. Combining technical innovation attention to safety and driving comfort of drivers, Philips is a leading global automotive suppliers. Philips lamps are installed in almost all cars in the world.

Premium Lamps

Up to 30% more light on the road. Our Premium range of lamps consists of halogen lamps that generate

VisionPlus Lamps

Up to 50% more light on the road. Install lamps VisionPlus is an investment in optimizing the safety and

VisionPlus lamps available in: H1, H4, H7, P21W, P21/5W

NightGuide Lamps

NightGuide: Safety Technology 3 in 1. The best innovation, recommended for maximum safety! The ran

1-Safety Zone. Better visibility and improved response. NightGuide generates a focused beam of light.

2-Information Zone. Better visibility of road signs. The blue light shining on the right of the beam provides better visibility of road signs.

3-Comfort Zone. Greater concentration on the area of security, for greater visual comfort of motorists.

NightGuide lamps available in: H1, H4, H7 R, H7 S

BlueVision Lamps

A blue light that lasts longer. Motorists prefer daylight. Daylight offers greater visibility. That's why Philips has developed BlueVision lamps.

BlueVision lamps are available in: H1, H3, H4, H7, HB3 9005, HB4 9006, W5W, T4W and H6W.

Multiple Philips halogen lamps are in line with European regulations, including the new ECE R112 regulations, which require halogen lamps to be replaced by LED lamps.